Art Parties

Alcohol Inks on Glass Plate Art Party

While sipping a glass of wine and nibbling on goodies, you will create a stunningly colorful glass plate using a rainbow palette of vibrant alcohol based inks. Because inks are applied to the back of the plate and are then sealed, the plate is food safe and washable as well as beautiful.

Thursday, June 22, 2017, 6:30 – 8:30PM, $35

includes materials fee, glass of wine and refreshments.

ArtforMS is a program designed to make all forms of art available to people of all abilities. These classes have been reported to help participants feel more relaxed, combat depression and exercise their fine-motor skills. Group classes also provide an opportunity to connect with others in a relaxed and sociable setting and celebrate the joy of creation and imagination. Thanks to a Grant from the Greater Hartford Arts Council, FVAC is now pleased to offer a series of subsidized ArtforMS® classes specifically for the MS Community.

ArtforMS Mixed Media Collage with Jim Brunelle

Creating Collage from hand painted papers and using images from magazines and other references, students will allow themselves to be drawn to appropriate subject matter for their project. The mystery unfolds as one cuts, tears, rips, and glues pieces onto mat-board. Participants start by creating a stash of stunning one-of-a-kind papers, then compose ideas from inspiration in discussions. Using the papers and supplementing them with paints, pastels, pencils and small photo clippings. This workshop is a great introduction to mixed media for beginners as well as studio time for more advanced students suitable for all experience levels.

Mondays, May 1, 8, 15, 22, 1-3PM

Fee: none

INSTRUCTOR BIOS

Stefanie Baechler

College student and fashionista Stefanie Baechler has been passionate about art since primary school. She has been instructing youth classes and arts adventures programs at the Farmington Valley Arts Center for two years and is pursuing a degree in Art Education. She loves working with pen and ink, as well as clay and watercolor.

Jim Brunelle

Jim Brunelle has acquired a mastery over clay by consistently working with the medium for over twenty years. He teaches several art classes to all ages of art enthusiasts. Aside from his work in clay, his paintings as well as prints have been exhibited in Connecticut galleries and museums.

Melanie Carr

Melanie received her MFA from the College of Art and Design at Lesley University in 2011. Prior to that, she served in the United States Navy as an Operations Specialist on board the USS Willamette (AO-180) in Pearl Harbor, HI. After 10 years at the New Britain Museum of American Art, most recently as Curator of New Media, she is now Adjunct Professor at Central Connecticut State University where she teaches drawing. Carr's work has been featured in exhibitions at numerous museums and galleries. She also has work in public and private collections.

Maurice Casas

Maurice Casas' has worked as a Visual Artist and Architectural Designer. His art is a result of several years of experimentation and a search for identity. His work creates an environment of invented realms and is juxtaposed between past and present. He uses semi-abstract and figurative mark making to create tension between reality and fanciful.

Lisel Crowley

Creating and teaching are at the core of just about everything that I do. I find inspiration everywhere and enjoy the camaraderie and community that is built when people of like minds and spirits gather together. As an artist, I am constantly trying new media and finding new directions for exploration. I currently specialize in metal clay, fused glass, alcohol ink painting and silk dyeing. As a teacher, I thrive on awakening the creative spark within people of all ages and backgrounds.

Peggy Dembicer

Peggy is a fiber artist with a contemporary design aesthetic. Her background in tapestry and pattern weaving has evolved to focus and explore the unique and intricate possibilities of paper weaving. She is also known for her intricate bead artistry. Her background includes years of teaching adults and children in public and private educational settings. She exhibits her work regularly in CT galleries. She also exhibits regularly as a member of Connecticut Women Artists and the Surface Design Association.

Margaret Freedman

Margaret has a Bachelor's in Fine Arts and a Master's in Elementary Education. She has taught Youth Art Classes at FVAC, the New Britain Museum, and is a certified Public School Teacher in Connecticut.

Carolann Dvorak-Brewer

Carolann has accrued an impressive list of honors and awards. A first class realist, you may come upon her work in the form of Trompe L'oeil (French for "fool the eye") murals, faux finished walls and furniture. Carolann paints these illusory scenes in Oil or Acrylic using brushes, rags, sponges, or feathers. Wherever you find her Art, you will find it to be vibrant, happy and alive. Carolann has a BA degree Magna Cum Laude from Douglass College at Rutgers University. She has been teaching at FVAC since 1991.

Elena Gibson

Elena Gibson has been a practicing fiber artist and educator for over 15 years. Her work is represented by galleries in Connecticut and Massachusetts. As an experienced art teacher, Elena has run numerous workshops in CT and MA in a variety of institutions. Originally from Slovakia, Elena has a background in graphic design.

Zbigniew Grzyb

Zbigniew is an abstract painter. His work gravitates towards different textures, shapes and feelings. His process of creating his abstract paintings require patience, for his work has extensive texture, line quality and balance. His paintings create a sense of space though the layers of line repetition and color.

Paul Iezzi

Nature for Paul, is the stimulus for artistic expression – the essence of the work of art. His endeavor is unity of formal consideration, with the process or thought, spontaneity of vision is sought to achieve simple awareness of living. Harmony and balance are key components in the construction of image. Of course, a little disorientation could lead to insight. Color lays the foundation for all of his work. Whether abstract, figurative, or figuration, color emotes the possibilities of the universe.

Karen Israel

Karen Israel is an award winning pastel artist currently serving as President of Connecticut Pastel Society. Her paintings are created as a celebration of light and color that aim to delight the eye and engage the mind. Karen's paintings are representational but symbolism and abstraction are constantly emerging in the frame. Her work can be found in many collections throughout the Northeast and Canada.

Andy Mars

Andy Mars creates one-of-a-kind mixed media artwork by integrating photography with watercolor and acrylic paints as well as pastel chalk and pencils. She prints on such materials as textured papers and canvas as well as traditional photographic paper. Andy's main areas of focus are nature, people, animals, seascapes and urban scenes. Her work has been exhibited at the Memorial Arts Museum in Rochester, NY, Manhattan and Connecticut galleries and various Soho Gallery restaurants.

Kathleen Curran Smits

Kathleen Curran Smits is a landscape painter and teaches computer graphics at Manchester Community College.
